

A woman with blonde hair, smiling and holding a cookie, is positioned in the upper left corner. A large white container, decorated with green leaves and red berries, is tipped over, spilling a large pile of golden-brown cookies onto a dark surface. The cookies are various types, including chocolate chip, M&M's, and round cookies with colorful candies. The text "Jenny's Favorite" is written in a blue cursive font, and "ALL AMERICAN COOKIES" is written in a bold, brown, sans-serif font on a white background.
